

2018 Craft Maple Syrup Festival Competition

A big driver for creating this Craft Maple Festival is to develop the growing community of Craft Maple Syrup. The craft maple syrup products hitting the market by storm do not have a community by which they can be compared and judged on a consistent platform. We think after 20 years, it was time to get this show on the road. Who has the best bourbon barrel aged maple syrup in the world? We think the world should know who the experts deem worthy.

2018 Craft Maple Syrup Festival Competition

Competition Rules

- 1) All maple syrup entered is authentic and pure (we can tell!)
- 2) Maple Syrup must be at our facility no later than October 18th at 5pm.
C/O Test My Taster
Bissell Maple Farm
82 West Ashtabula St
Jefferson, OH 44047
- 3) All entries are in a market-ready package and clearly labeled with your name. Don't send us a partial Mason jar of some experimental juniper berry pickle barrel aged maple syrup. We aren't a research firm. We're volunteers. If you don't sell the product, don't send it. Want an opinion? Ask your mommy.
- 4) All entries will NOT be returned (but it will be donated to a good cause in the community on Saturday morning!)
- 5) Don't be a fraud. We are pretty sophisticated with our testing. Quite frankly, our judges have golden tongues and Georgie will flunk you. He's got a laser.

By submitting your craft maple syrup, you are agreeing to the terms of the competition. Your name, organization information, and the name and image of your product may be included in print and media marketing for this event.

Thank you for making the word a little sweeter and more crafty by sharing your craft maple syrup!
